If you have a great idea for a new group on campus, bring your vision to life and create your own student organization!

You must be a currently enrolled undergraduate student at UM, have completed at least one semester, and cannot be graduating at the end of this semester to apply.

TIPS FROM STUDENT LEADERS

Landon Coles
Student Government President

“Pursue your passions relentlessly. Your undergraduate experience will be what you make of it so shape it with no regrets.”

Michael MacHard
Editor in Chief of the ibis

“The most important thing to remember is to not be afraid of talking to everyone and anyone you want!”

Kat Jenkins
Hurricane Productions Chair

“Be kind to yourself and recognize that what you once wanted might not be what you want now, next year, or by the time you graduate.”

Nathan Dumont
Category 5 Chair

“One of the best ways to navigate CaneFest is by making a list of what interests you.”

Asia Chester
Student Government Elections Commission Chair

“Stay open-minded and sign up for everything. Eventually you’ll find what sticks. If nothing else you’ll get lots of free stuff!”
FAQ

How many clubs will be present?

i) 150+ student organizations will be present at Canefest this year

ii) COSO will be offering a virtual Canefest follow up, where every student organization has the opportunity to connect with incoming students.

iii) Overall the University of Miami has over 300 student organizations!

What types of clubs can I find?

i) The University of Miami offers a variety of organization, such as: Community Service, Multicultural & Identity-Based, Religious & Spirituality, Club Sports and Academic

ii) We have something for everyone!

How can I better prepare myself?

i) Try exploring our student organization portal, Engage, before attending the event.

ii) Make sure you know your C number going into the event! Some student organizations will want to invite you to their Engage portal.

Do I need to bring anything?

i) Try to bring a list of organizations you definitely want to check out.

ii) Make sure to bring a mask, masks are required for the duration of the event.

How to use Engage?

1) Go to engage.miami.edu

2) Sign in on the top right corner using your Canelink credentials

4) Under the tab 'Events', you can see upcoming events.
   a) You can also narrow your search by date
   c) You can select the type of event you are looking for with the 'themes' and 'categories' options on the left
   d) The 'perks' options to the left allows you to search for events based off the perks of them (free stuff!)

5) Under the "Organizations" tab on the top of the page you can explore the various organizations on campus.

   b) If you have just joined an organization you should join their Engage page by clicking the blue "Join" button. This adds you to their Organization Member Roster.

8) Under news, you can see new articles organizations have posted!